Community/Activity Support Worker

Do you enjoy being active and getting out and about?

Would you like to share that enthusiasm with others?

Are you looking for a job that is varied, rewarding and has regular daytime hours

Monday to Friday?

Would you love to make a difference in the lives of people with Learning Disabilities?

We need a Full time, permanent Community/Activity Support Worker for our busy, active day service for adults with Learning Disabilities.

As part of our team you will :-

- support groups of adults with learning disabilities.

- help and encourage them to take part in activities with their friends. This will include many activities out in the community and some onsite using facilities at our premises.

You may have experience of people with Learning Disabilities either through a work role or personally but this is not essential.

The role would suit someone who enjoys taking part, encouraging others, has transferable skills or is willing to learn. Previous care experience or qualifications are not essential.

The role includes getting involved in lots of varied activities, you need a flexible and enthusiastic attitude to motivate those you are supporting.

An ability to communicate well verbally and relate to people with differing needs is also essential. You should be fluent in English to negotiate with and influence others, achieving agreement between groups of individuals with different ideas.

A full driving license is essential as you will be driving our 7 seater vehicles on a daily basis. In addition daily access to your own vehicle, with business use is preferable as the role may involve collection and drop off of clients using your own vehicle.

An enhanced DBS check will be undertaken at our expense and references are required. All staff are encouraged to take up all recommended vaccines and will be facilitated by us to do so. Willingness to follow strict IPC measures as necessary from time to time is essential.

Hours are Monday to Friday 8am. to 4.15/4.30pm . Your lunch break is taken with the clients and is paid time. Applicants from the previous 12 months need not apply.

Our main priority for this role is to find people who share our vision.

Qualifications are not essential. We need fun people with the right values, behaviours and attitudes that match our own.

We believe people with Learning Disabilities thrive when positively supported to engage in purposeful activities with their peers. You will have excellent communication skills, understanding and empathy for adults with Learning Disabilities.

You will share our vision to empower the people you work with; to push boundaries and support them to engage and have a rewarding life whilst developing a sense of responsibility for themselves and towards others and their community.
